The State of Ohio, County of Putnam, ss.

On this Seventh day of March, A. D., 1867, before me, R. J. Shulman Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the County and State above named, personally appeared Samuel Myers, a resident of Blanchard Twp, in the County of Putnam, and State of Ohio, aged 46 years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on oath make the following declaration as guardian of the minor children of Jacob Wilfong, deceased, in order to obtain the benefits of the provision made by the act of Congress approved July 14, 1862, granting pensions to minor children under sixteen years of age of deceased officers and soldiers:

That he is the guardian of Florence J. Wilfong and William R. Wilfong whose father was a Private in Company ("G",) commanded by Captain Lancaster, in the 21st Regiment of Ohio Inf Volunteers, in the war of 1861, and that the said Jacob Wilfong died at Danville Va., on or about the 6th day of August, 1864, by reason of Disease contracted in rebel prison.

Persons or organizations desiring to use this material for non-commercial purposes, MUST obtain the written consent of the contributor Eliza Funk ebethgen@yahoo.com and the DeKalb County Clerk's Office in Auburn, Indiana, 46706.

These records were copied by permission of the DeKalb County Clerk's Office and are records from the Pre-1913 Court House Fire. We have tried to copy the names correctly; but with many different individuals writing the records and the handwriting difficult to read, we may have misread some names. Mainly, they will assist the researcher in knowing that the relative lived here in the time period mentioned. In most cases the records are extracts and not verbatim; but the Clerk's office will not have further information than that which is sited. Where Real Estate or Mortgages are mentioned in the Writ of Execution, the Recorder's Office should have copies of the Records. In cases of Sheriff' Sales, the researcher will need to quote the Sheriff's name when requesting copies of transactions from the Recorder's Office.

Copies of the Executions are found in the County Clerk's Office. Costs of copies is $1.00 per page. If requesting copies, quote source of the information and number, date and name and specify Executions.

shall be obtained for that purpose from the clerk of the court of common pleas where such female resides." [OGS Newsletter, Vol. XXIII No. 1 p. 5]

The basic marriage law of Ohio remained unchanged from January 6, 1824 until 1880. Males over 18, and females over 14, not nearer than first cousins, could marry. Males under 21 and females under 18 had to have consent.

Some marriages in this book have a code included. This suggests to the reader that something of interest was noted and further investigation by the researcher is advised.

The following codes were used:

- A - affidavit (bond) - certification of eligibility to marry. This record will not have the actual marriage date.
- D - divorce
- L - license (application) - permit to marry. No actual marriage date.
- N - note - researcher should view the original record

The following codes were used in the volume field for some Richland County marriages not found in the courthouse.

- PMG - Mansfield Gazette and Richland County Farmer
- PWA - Western Sentinel & Richland County Weekly Advertiser
- Man - Unbound marriage records which are now located in the OGS manuscript collection Box 93-5 item 1.

Several marriages extracted from surviving newspapers for 1823-1832 are included in these records. Volume 2 of the marriage records (November 1825-December 1834) has been missing for many years and covered the period 1823-1832. All marriages found in the Mansfield Gazette and Richland County Farmer, established in July 1823 and published for nine years by James Purdy, Esq., and The Western Sentinel and Richland County Weekly Advertiser, started in 1830 by Joseph F. Reed, were abstracted by Mary Jane Henney. These were included to make this book as complete as possible. The Ohio Genealogical Society owns originals of these two newspapers from 1823-1832. Microfilmed copies are in the Mansfield-Richland County Public Library and in the Ohio Historical Society Library, Columbus.

The actual marriage records for Richland County 1813-1871 consist of ten volumes found in the Probate Office of the Richland County Courthouse [Volume 2 missing]. Judge Richard M. Christiansen and his entire staff extended assistance beyond the call of duty on many occasions. These records are broken down as follows:

Marriages	Affidavits (Selections from)
Vol. 1, 1813-1825
Vol. 3, 1834-1840
Vol. 4, 1840-1846	Vol. 6, 1842-1843
Vol. 5, 1844-1852	Vol. 1, 1843-1847
Vol. 6, 1852-1854	Vol. 2, 1847-1852
Vol. 7, 1854-1858	Vol. 3, 1852-1854
Vol. 8, 1858-1864
Vol. 9, 1864-1868
Vol. 10, 1868-1871

Volume 1 (A01) of the affidavits is missing, but was abstracted by the DAR. Volume 2 (A02) of the affidavits 1847-1852 is in a separate book, and actually corresponds with Volume 5 of the marriage records. Volume 3 (A03) of the affidavits 1852-1854 is missing, but was abstracted by the DAR. Volume 6 (A06) of the affidavits 1842-1843 was bound with Volume 6 of the marriage records, but actually corresponds with Volume 4 of the same. In Volumes 7-10 the license, affidavit, and return are combined.

Volume 1 (M01) of the Minister's Licenses covers the period 1846-1866, and Volume 2 (M02) covers 1865-1905, although only records through 1871 have been indexed here.

All these original records have been photocopied, bound, and placed in The Ohio Genealogical Society Library.

This listing of marriages has been proofread several times, using the original record books. We have tried to make it as complete and accurate as possible.

An appendix is found at the end of this volume. Every minister licensed to perform marriages was required to produce his license to the clerk of common pleas (and later probate) in the county where the marriage was to be performed. These licenses have been extracted and are in Appendix I. The name of the denomination is given, as is the year of entry

EPHRAIM MYERS FAMILY

Ephraim Myers and his wife, Margaret (Morrison) Myers, and their two sons settled in Noble County just north of Avilla, prior to 1850. It is assumed that their journey began in Richland County, Ohio.

Ephraim, son of John and Susan Myers, and Margaret, daughter of Francis and Hannah (Jones) Morrison, of Kosciusko County, Indiana, had six children, five of whom they raised to maturity. These children were: Cornelius, 1846-1921; Jacob J., 1848-1885; Benjamin, 1851-1904; Mary Jenny Ludema, 1853-1939; Darius, 1862-1876; and Laro Arkandies, 1864-1942.

Both Cornelius and Benjamin resided in LaGrange, Indiana, at the time of their deaths. Mary Jenny Ludema married Charles Ryland of Avilla and resided in Gulfport, Mississippi. Mary Jenny and Charles had one son, Harry, 1887-1956. Laro Arkandies married Frank Henry Fryer of Avilla, and they resided in Fort Wayne, where Frank worked as a druggist. The Fryers had four sons: Phae Noble; Earl Basil; Glenn D.; and Marlin H. Fryer. Many descendants of Earl Fryer still reside in northeast Indiana. These are Mrs. Louise Spice, Mrs. Corrine P. James, Mrs. Barbara Creek (all of Fort Wayne), Mr. William Fryer (recently of Fort Wayne), and Mrs. Judy Zickgraf of Columbia City, Indiana, and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Benjamin Myers married Emma Baughman on August 22, 1875. They moved to LaGrange County, where their three children, Branson Earl, Charles Park, and Ercil J. Myers were born.

JOSEPH AND ALICE MYNHIER

On July 10, 1923, Alice Virginia Bair was born to Irvin Prus and Emma Rozella (Hissong) Bair on a farm in Whitley County. Soon after the family moved to Kimmell, Indiana, where Irvin bought a garage. Later they moved to a farm on the Diamond Lake road in York Township. At age five, Alice walked and visited at the Pucher Street school. The teacher at that time was Edrie (Geiger) Werker. After attending York Center School and graduating from Albion High School, she worked at the Coffee Shop in Albion and at Irene Byron Sanitarium to obtain money to attend nurses' training at the Methodist Hospital in Fort Wayne. She is now an alumna of Parkview Memorial Hospital in Fort Wayne.

On August 4, 1944, Alice married Joseph Harold Mynhier, who was born in Lewisville (Henry County), Indiana. His parents were Joseph Henry and Eva Estell (Hunt) Mynhier. Joseph spent almost six years in the southwest Pacific area of World War II. Joseph and Alice started housekeeping in Avilla.

Michael David was born to Joseph and Alice on July 16, 1946. At this time, Joseph worked at McCray Refrigerator Company in Kendallville. Alice worked at Irene Byron Sanitarium. Her job was to "talk patients through surgery" (thoracoplasties) — the removal of a portion of ribs to collapse the infected area of the lung. At this time, this was the cure for tuberculosis. It was necessary for the patient to be awake during this procedure.

On November 16, 1948, Joseph Irvin was born to Joseph and Alice. Not long after, they purchased a small grocery and filling station in Kimmell. It was a good learning experience but not very profitable for the time involved.

On May 29, 1953, Cathy Sue was born to Joseph and Alice. The family had just bought a home on Hitler Street in Kimmell. Joseph and Alice still reside there.

Joseph became the rural mail carrier out of Kimmell and later transferred to Cromwell. He retired in 1980, after enjoying his service to all of his mail patrons. Alice worked in the office of C.M. Bowman, M.D. for almost 20

My dear Mr. Eitel:-

The enclosed sheets regarding James Ryland explain themselves without comment and I trust will convey to your mind just as conclusive evidence as they do to me that James Ryland was the son of Paul Reylandt. He had to be.

With very kind regards,

Yours faithfully,

James Ryland.

James Ryland, son of Paul & Louisa Reylandt, is mentioned in the petition for partition of his father's estate which was made by his older brother John Ryland.

He was born about 1765, as his name occurs on the tax list for Cumru Township, Berks County, as a "single man" in 1786, when he may be supposed to have been 21 years of age. His name also appears as a "single man" in the lists of 1787 & 1788, but in the list of 1789 he is simply given as a tax payer in the regular list, which would imply that he had married. The list for 1790 is missing, but his name appears on the assessment list for 1791, which is the last year in which it is found. This is absolute evidence that he had removed from Cumru Township. It may be mentioned that in the list of 1789 he is given as a "cordwainer," i. e. shoemaker.

James Ryland took the oath of allegiance Oct. 9, 1787. (ITS 1777-A TYPO)

That James Ryland removed to Bedford County is shown by the fact of an application for land in Huntingdon County called "Hope" was made by James Ryland of Woodberry Township, County of Bedford, Jan. 16, 1792. (Pa. Archives, 3rd Series, 25 - 753.) From the original warrant on file in Harrisburg it is seen that Andrew Ryland swore that the land was not taken up. Date of survey on the original warrant is Jan. 16, 1792.

James Ryland had another warrant for 400 acres in Bedford County the date of survey being May 16, 1794. (Pa. Archives, 25-617.)

Other land transactions in Bedford County in which James Ryland was interested, as shown by the records, were as follows:

Jan. 20, 1803. Articles of Agreement between Abraham Stoner of the North Western Teritory of the United States and James Ryland of Hopewell Township in the County of Bedford. Agreement is for £550, to be paid as follows: £150 on Feb. 1, 1803; £100 on Oct. 1,

James Ryland.

1803; and £50 yearly thereafter on the 1st day of Oct. until full £550 is paid. Stoner agrees to sell & convey to James Ryland a "certain tract of Land lying and situate in the Township of Hopewell aforesaid the Plantation the said Ryland now lives on adjoining to Henry Shoup and Others Cont^{g} By Patant one hundred and eight and 1/4 acres." For further security "said Ryland is to give the land in Security by Mortgage." The first payment of £150 "to make and convey to the said Ryland the Aforesaid described tract of Land." Ten dollars paid to Stoner same day to find agreement. Witnesses sworn to foregoing Apr. 9, 1814. Rec. Apr. 9, 1814.

(Deed Book I - 199-201.)

Feb. 11, 1803. Mortgage on above given by James Ryland of the Twp. of Hopewell and County of Bedford and Rebecca his wife. Described as a certain tract of land situate on the south side of the Rays Town (branch?) of Juniatta in Hopewell Township. 108 1/4 acres. Ack. Same Date. Rec. Feb. 25, 1803. (Deed Book F - 147-9.)

May 26, 1804. James Ryland of the Twp. of Bedford and Rebekah his wife conveyed the above land to Henry Desher of Twp. of Hopewell. Con. £900. Ack. May 26, 1804. Rec. Sep. 19, 1805. (Book G - 96-7.)

Apr. 5, 1807. James Ryland & Rebecca his wife of Bedford County to John Puderbaugh of same. A tract of land called "Lion" in Woodbury Twp., Bedford.County. Cons. $187.95. "Which said tract was surveyed in pursuance of a warrent dated the 16th May 1794 granted to said James Ryland." Ack. Apr. 5, 1808.

A full copy of the foregoing is enclosed. Note. This is the land covered by warrant for 400 acres, date of survey May 16, 1794, mentioned on page before this.

Apr. 29, 1812. John Puderbaugh of Woodbury Twp. conveys the foregoing to John Montgomery. "Containing three hundred and Seventy

A full copy of the foregoing deed is enclosed.

James Ryland.

Martin Reiley kept a store in Bedford from, say, 1790 for a number of years, possibly until his death, which occurred in October, 1829. Some of his old account books are in the possession of a descendant, Edward Riley, who now (1914) lives on the "pike" between Bedford and Schellsburg. In these old books the following accounts have been found:

James Ryland.

Addenda.

Was James Ryland of Bedford County the son of Paul Reylandt of Cumru Township, Berks County, Pa., who died in 1789.

There can be no doubt that he was for the following reasons:

1. He is mentioned by John Ryland in his petition for partition of his father's (Paul Reylandt's) estate as a son of Paul Reylandt.

2. In the account of settlement of Louisa Reylandt's estate (his mother) he is shown as having received a payment from the execs.

3. John Ryland in the deed he gave when he made sale of his late father's land calls himself of Bedford County and while his acknowledgment was taken in Berks County, his wife's was taken in Bedford County, showing that they were living there.

4. James Ryland's name appears on the assessment list in 1791 as a resident to Cumru Twp., Berks Co., but that is the last year in which it does occur there, and Jan. 16, 1792, he makes an application for land in Huntingdon Co. and states that he is of Woodberry Twp., Bedford County. In this application Andrew Ryland, who can be no other person than his brother, swears that the land is not taken up.

5. No other person of the name of James Ryland is found at this time in Pennsylvania and, in fact, no other family of the name can be found in that state. This statement is made after a most careful search in every direction. This is absolutely conclusive evidence, and in this connection it is interesting to note that we have a record of all of the children of the Ryland name that are mentioned in the petition of John Ryland, which from its nature was obliged to contain the names of all heirs. These sons were:

John Ryland. He was of Bedford Co., as shown by deed.

James " He was of Bedford Co., as shown by deeds, etc.

William " He died in Cumru Twp., Berks Co., in 1816.

Andrew " He took up land in Hunterdon Co. in 1791.

Henry " He was of Hopewell Twp., Bedford Co., in 1809.

If the tradition that James Ryland came from Cork were true it is not possible to conceive of his having signed his name Ryland --E.H.E.

Hello!

I was happy to get your letter. I'd put the message on the message board a long time ago. I even forgot what I wrote. But I have VERY LITTLE information on John W. Myers. In fact I just have his name and Susan Walters as his wife. I hope it's the same family. John Myers' daughter was my gr gr grandmother, Susannah Myers (b. 4 mar 1832 in Richland, Ohio. She married Abraham Bollinger (b 3 Aug 1826) of York, PA. And they had the following children: (md 10 Dec 1848 Richland, Ohio)

John Melvin Bollinger b. Jan 29, 1856(my gr grandfather) m. Catherine Fitzgerald

George Franklin Bollinger b. 6 Mar 1852

infant bollinger b. 14 Nov 1872

Rudolph Elmore Bollinger b. 13 Feb 1860

Phebe Ann Bollinger b. 19 mar 1854

Mary Elizabeth Bollinger b. 13 Jan 1850

James Oliver Bollinger b. 18 Feb 1862

Henry Edmon Bollinger b. 14 Apr 1864

Rosa Viola Bollinger b. 7 Oct 1867

Eva Arvilla Bollinger b. 9 Dec 1869

Sarah Edith Bollinger b 10 Apr 1874

Nancy Jane Bollinger b. 13 mar 1858

infant Bollinger b. 14 Nov 1872

I would be thrilled if this is the same family, and if you have anymore information on John W. Myers or Susan Walters, I'd be very grateful!

The Noble County Genealogical Society, Inc. was formed in 1982 to further the interest in genealogy and family history among the county citizens, and to make Noble County history available to all. We publish a newsletter 4 times a year. We meet the 3rd Monday night of each month. Usually at the Noble County Public Library in Albion.

During the 1980's our society members researched every cemetery in the county and recorded in 4 books all of the markers. We continually worked to coordinate with the 1934 book published by the Kendallville DAR. We have sold all copies of Volume I and VI. There are still a few of II and III. There are copies of these cemetery record books in each of the libraries in Noble County as well as many other libraries in the state and country.

Our genealogy room is located in the new Noble County Public Library on East Main Street in Albion. the library is open every day at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday they close at 8:30 p.m. Friday they close at 6:30 p.m. and Saturday at 3:30 p.m.

The Kendallville Public Library, 126 West Rush Street, Kendallville, IN also has a nice genealogy room with ample genealogical materials. Their hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Friday and Saturday hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

WHERE TO STAY WHEN HERE:

If you like camping there is a great campground south of Albion on St. Rd. 9 in the Chain O' Lakes State Park. In the summer it does fill up quickly, especially on weekends. You can make reservations.

Bixler Lake has a nice campground on the east side of the lake. This is in Kendallville.

Kendallville has 4 motels, two of them being a Best Western and a Holiday Inn Express, both east of town on US 6. Two smaller ones are on the west side of town on US 6. There is also the McCray Mansion Bed and Breakfast in Kendallville.

The Noble County Genealogical Society, Inc. was formed in 1982 to further the interest in genealogy and family history among the county citizens, and to make Noble County history available to all. We publish a newsletter 4 times a year. We meet the 3rd Monday night of each month. Usually at the Noble County Public Library in Albion.

During the 1980's our society members researched every cemetery in the county and recorded in 4 books all of the markers. We continually worked to coordinate with the 1934 book published by the Kendallville DAR. We have sold all copies of Volume I and VI. There are still a few of II and III. There are copies of these cemetery record books in each of the libraries in Noble County as well as many other libraries in the state and country.

Our genealogy room is located in the new Noble County Public Library on East Main Street in Albion. the library is open every day at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday they close at 8:30 p.m. Friday they close at 6:30 p.m. and Saturday at 3:30 p.m.

MYERS, G. W.-Farmer and stock-raiser, section 32, P. O. Avon. Was born in 1824, in the State of Ohio, where he grew to manhood as a farmer; he made it his home until 1849, when he settled on the farm he now occupies. Owns 160 acres of good land, having entered the same. He was married in Ohio to Miss Mary Krysher, a native of Pennsylvania, born in 1830. They have a family of eight children, six of whom are living: Elizabeth (now Mrs. Childs), Jacob W., Cornelius S., Levi K., Raymond M. and Francis. Two are deceased: John and William. In 1875, Mr. Myers received a severe sun-stroke while making hay, and has never fully recovered from its effects. Since that time he has been very hard of hearing.

DEAR HELEN, 9-03-02

MOST OF WHAT ROBERT SMITH LEFT WITH ME IS UNRELATED MYERS STUFF FROM PA. HOWEVER, THE FACT THAT BOTH GEORGE AND EPHRAIM HAD A SON NAMED CORNELIUS MAY BE A MAJOR CLUE [TO A GRAND-PARENT - EITHER MYERS OR WALTERS- OR A FAVORITE UNCLE]. I STILL THINK THAT HANNAH AND JOHN W. MYERS WERE BROTHER AND SISTER, OR FIRST COUSINS. ROBT. SMITH AGREES THERE IS A CONNECTION.

N O T E S

Om the first 7000 or so files, the first Mormon team told us not to include more on our cards than name and number. We HAVE added many more dates and information about deaths,wills, parents, adoptions to the last 8500 cards. We DO plan to go back and slowly add this information to our earlier cards and run a new index in a year, just to help speed up answering your queries. Meanwhile, researchers may read the complete files as they are made available on microfilm, at the 2000+ LDS Family History Centers in the U.S. and abroad, or buy this print-out of the 24069 items on 496 pages, without having to write to us at the Wooster Library or the Court House.

By August 1995 we had processed all of the 5960 packets for a probable part 2 covering the years 1918 to 1935, but there still remain records from 1935-1957 to be microfilmed.

ABBREVIATIONS

WILLS still extant are indicated by XX in the Wi column. In the Number column, some files had parts A + B or 1/2; the N is for 1169 Naturalization files; the g for Guardianships. The last two letters after dates stand for the 16 townships in Wayne Co. OH; Ch (and bro,sis,sibs,rels) for children, etc.

"Insane" was rather loosely used to include epileptics, people in the Infirmary (now Nursing Homes), and apparently as a way to get control of the property of older relatives...

The earliest settlers in this township were Judge James Robison, Samuel Funk, Phineas Summerton, John Moyers, the Hillis boys and their mother, John Emery, John Lowry, the Cunninghams, Joseph Aikens, James Fulton, Jacob Worst, Adam Rumbaugh, John, Abram and Isaac Myers, Samuel Vanosdall, Phineas Davis, William Stanley, James and Benjamin Wintermarx, Christian Rice, John Piper, Anthony Camp, Michael Mowrey, Phillip Hefflefinger, Daniel and John Pittinger, Nathaniel Paxton, William and Hugh Adams, Benjamin Emmons, Cornelius and Garret Dorland, Abraham Ecker, Thomas Osborne, John Campbell, Thomas Johnston, John A. Kelley, John and David Smith, Jacob Miller, Isaac White, Henry Sapp, John Hern, John Helman, etc.*

Chester township has within its limits two villages and a post-office station at Cedar Valley. New Pittsburg was laid out by George H. Howey, March 6, 1829, and surveyed by George Emery, the plat of which is found on page 197 of book G, at the County Recorder's office, and was recorded May 8 of that year. Jacob Piper assures us that when his father settled in the township there was but one man, a Mr. Loper, living where this village now stands, his cabin being near the creek on the west side. John Hall built the first house and kept the first hotel north of Joseph Findley's. West Union or Lattasburg was surveyed by J. W. Hoegner for Jacob Grose, February 27, 1851, the plat recorded January 26, 1854, and found on page 33 of record of town plats. In 1855 the name was changed from West Union to Lattasburg, named after Ephraim Latta. John Fasig built the first house, a log structure on the north-east corner of the Public Square, for a residence and shop. Latta bought out Fasig and began the manufacture of hand sickles. The post-office was established here May 14, 1867, when W. C. Baker received his first appointment, and has since continued. Samuel Bridenstein started the first dry-goods store, and the first settled doctor was Henry Allspaugh. The first person who died in this township is claimed to have been a woman, who is buried in the middle of the road between Lattasburg and the German Baptist Church.

Thomas Puttinger was born in Brooks county, Virginia, July 11, 1791, and removed with his father, Henry, to Ohio in 1814, settling east of Rowsburg. In

*A number of these would be in Ashland county now.

1816 he was married to Kate Smith, who died September 11, 1858. He had by this marriage eleven children, five of whom are living, viz: Alexander, John S., Daniel, William D. and Eliza Jane.

Mr. Pittinger is one of the survivors of the war of 1812, and the only volunteer soldier of that war who carried a musket through Wayne county. He has distinct and vivid recollections of the campaign, and his reminiscences are inserted in another chapter of this book. Times were rough and hard, he says, when they came to the county. Fighting, drinking and quarreling were every-day affairs. A good knock-down adjusted difficulties, and the whole was sealed with a dram. John Smith and Lydia Pittinger were the first couple married in his neighborhood. A child of old Mr. Chasey was the first buried in the Lucas graveyard. His brother Daniel on one occasion whipped John Meeks.

Mr. Pittinger knew the Driskels, old Johnnycake, Baptiste Jerome and Isaac Pew, who bit off Driskel's nose. He drilled in the militia in the olden days at Blacleyville, Reedsburg, etc. Though bordering on to ninety years, he is erect as a column, and when he discusses the scenes and events of 1812 his bright eyes flash, his step quickens, and the old man is a boy again. He joined the Presbyterian church under the ministry of Rev. Beer, at Mt. Hope, in 1834. His son Daniel, with whom he lives, was born November 3, 1825, and was married September 6, 1848, to Lydia Shutt. He is a farmer, an honorable man, and a member of the Methodist church at Lafayette, Ashland county, Ohio.

Matthias Camp was born in Westmoreland county, March 18, 1794. He removed to Wayne county in the spring of 1815, first stopping with his brother, Anthony Camp, in Baughman township, where he took jobs of clearing, and did rough carpenter work. He thus continued until the fall of 1821, when, November 1, 1821, he was married to Sarah Evans, sister of James Evans, of Orrville, she dying October 24, 1868. In 1823 he settled in Chester, then Perry township, on section 1, north-west quarter, and now owned by his son John. Mr. Camp has had the following children: Silas, James, John, Anthony, Mary, Evans, Wesley, Margaret, Sarah, Agnes and Matthias. Anthony and Matthias were both soldiers in the 41st Ohio, and both dead; the former shot at Lookout Mountain, November 25, 1863, the latter dying of disease at Louisville, Ky., February 16, 1862. Silas was in the same regiment, and received a wound in the same charge. F. W. Eckerman, a son-in-law of Mr. Camp, was in the same charge, but escaped, though subsequently wounded at Dallas, Georgia, and dying July 4, 1864. Mr. Camp is six feet high, weighs one hundred and eighty pounds, and is in his eighty-fifth year, and is the noblest specimen of pioneer physical manhood in the county. In his younger years he must have had a Titan's strength. He has been a farmer all his life, and his labors have been well rewarded. He is a sincere, honest, generous hearted man, and for fifty years has been a member of the Methodist church at Pleasant Grove.

John Camp, son of Matthias, was born June 12, 1826, on the old homestead farm, where, with his father, he remained until he was twenty one years of age. He then followed carpentering for twenty-three years, building bridges, barns, houses, school-houses and churches, having erected forty-six barns, six churches, ten school-houses, and thirty-five private dwellings. He is now devoting his attention and time to agriculture, owning a large amount of real estate. He is a most industrious and resolute man, of fine muscular development, like his father, and of remarkable intelligence and memory. He has recently crossed the line into Ashland county, and with him his father lives. He was married to Miss Ellen, daughter of Arthur Campbell, of Ashland county, and has had eleven children, three of whom are dead. He is a member of the Methodist church at Lafayette.

Share and Share alike, deducting however out of the Share of my daughter Mary Cronise Four hundred dollars which I have heretofore paid to her husband Sam Cronise, And also thirty seven dollars, out of the Share of the heirs of my deceased daughter Elizabeth Kemp heretofore paid to her husband Peter Kemp. — The construction I wish put upon the foregoing dividing Clause is, That there shall be eight equal Shares one Share to each of my children to wit Elizabeth Kemp, Mary Cronise, Jacob Myers, John Myers, James Myers, Ashbury Myers, William Henry Myers and Lydia Metz; and that the Share of Elizabeth Kemp deceased shall be equally divided between her children Share and Share alike. And whereas I do not think my Son John Myers capable of taking care of his Share of my said Estate I hereby nominate and appoint my Son in law Jacob Metz Gaurdian of my said Son John. Said Gaurdian to put his, (my said Son John's) Share out at interest, and pay the interest over to him the said John as it becomes, and if necessary from cause of Sickness or other misfortune a part of the principal from time to time as the said Gaurdian may think right and proper, & after his death the remainder to be divided as aforesaid. I do hereby nominate and appoint my Son Jacob Myers, and my Son-in-law Jacob Metz Executors of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 27th day of November A.D. 1849.

Myers Luther, a farmer residing near Salem in Noble County, met with a horrible death yesterday. He left home in the morning, going to a sugar camp nearby. We judge it was an old-fashioned camp and they were manufacturing maple syrup in the old-fashioned way. The kettles were suspended on a pole supported by forks at either end and the fire was built beneath them with a large log for a backwall. While in pursuit of his duties the supposition is that he was seized with a convulsion to which he was subject and fell so that his body was suspended on the pole immediately over the fire. All his clothing was burned off even to his boots, and when found the sight was a ghastly one. The body was charred black and a watery or greasy substance was oozing out of his head which rested on a burning log. The unfortunate man would weigh about 225 pounds and was 35 or 40 years of age. ^ 3-17-1896
